"You may be excused, Mr. Bushnell, I want to remind you, however, that it is the duty of a good citizen to obey the law and that it is an important part of the obedience to the law to obey the instructions of the court implicitly when acting as a juror in a criminal case. That is something every good man ought to be willing and ready to do. You are excused."

LEAPS WITH WIFE TO SEA

Le Roy Smith Tells of Terrible Experience When Steamer Went Down.

Le Roy Smith, of the Smith Brothers Hardware Company, who, with his wife, was on the ill-fated steamer Columbia, and were stated as lost in the first reports, have returned from Eureka, where they have been since being saved.

Smith, when seen this morning, narrated a thrilling tale of the escape of himself and wife.

"I realized at once when the Columbia struck that our chances were small on board of an iron vessel. My wife and I had retired. Mrs. Smith was greatly excited and was so frightened she was unable to dress. She was attired in only her shoes, hose and night dress, but I was more fortunate by putting on considerable apparel. We, with many others, dashed to a lifeboat while hanging on to the davits. When the ropes were about to be cut, we jumped back on the deck of the ship. The lifeboat was precipitated into the sea upside down. We got out of the boat because I could easily perceive it was overlaid with passengers and would have been swamped anyway if lowered on the keel.

LEAPS INTO SEA.

"We were on the deck of the steamer but a few minutes when the Columbia began to go down. I had fastened a life preserver tightly around my wife's chest, but did not have time to buckle mine on. With it leaped around my body we jumped into the sea, my wife with her arms clasped around my neck, begging me to separate from her, which, of course, I did not intend to do. We must have descended a long ways below the surface of the water. We came up together, Mrs. Smith still clinging to me. For nearly an hour we floated in the water before being rescued by a boat and taken on board the San Pedro.

WATER WARM.

"While in the sea the water was quite warm. I did not suffer from cold, but as soon as taken on the lumber-laden San Pedro we thought we would freeze to death. It was an awful experience—one we will not soon forget. I am greatly surprised so many people were saved, for it did not seem but a few minutes after the Columbia was struck that she disappeared under the waves.

"The midnight hour of the collision was against many being rescued. Most everyone on board had retired and was sound asleep. Fortunately I was awake, also, my wife, and that no time in getting out of my stateroom. My wife is still unstrung from her terrible ordeal, but we are thankful to be alive and once more among relatives and friends. We lost considerable in baggage, jewelry and money.

CHIEFS HEROIC.

"Captain Jordan was certainly one of God's nobles. To him many can owe their deliverance. I saw nothing but heroism among the crews of both steamers. We were taken to Eureka and every comfort was extended to all of the survivors that reached that port. We returned to Oakland because my wife was unable to travel.

THE TRIBUNE reporter asked Smith if he intended again to try a sea voyage with his wife. He smiled and remarked: "Well, hardly a sea trip very soon. I think these last few days are good enough for me. The scenery is so much nicer and I can walk on dry land."

Smith looks none the worse for his experience.

Because a barrel used as a work bench contained explosives and was set off by his working on it while installing electrical fixtures, C. F. Mullen has brought suit in the Superior Court against the firm of Perkins & McKinley, composed of United States Senator George C. Perkins and Congressman Duncan E. McKinley for $5,000 damages. Mullen states in the complaint that he was working in a building belonging to the defendants at Seventeenth and Campbell streets last January. He claims to be ignorant of the fact that the barrel contained explosives. The sudden explosion caused him to be injured about the face and body, which he claimed delayed him from work for a considerable length of time.

CANNOT STAND FOR SOCIALISM

Denver Man Drops Out of Miners' Defense Because of Attorney Darrow's Methods.

DENVER, Colo., August 2.—The Daily News says today that Attorney E. F. Richardson of Denver, who was one of Haywood's counsel in the famous trial at Boise, Idaho, has withdrawn from any further connection with the defense of officials and others of the Western Federation of Miners in suits now pending before the Idaho courts. He is quoted as saying that he will not work with Clarence Darrow, the Chicago lawyer, associated with him in the case, any longer.

"The whole sum and substance of the matter is that I cannot endure Darrow's methods," said Richardson. "I do not sanction socialism, at least not when it is coupled with the trying of a legal suit, especially when that case is a murder case and means a man's life. Darrow's closing speech in the Haywood trial was rank. It was enough to hang any man regardless of his innocence or guilt."

The News says that advices from Boise, received last night, are to the effect that Attorneys Richardson and Nugent had been dropped from further connection with the remaining cases, and that Darrow had been given full charge.

MOYER NOW DISCREET.

DENVER, August 2.—Charles H. Moyer, president of the Western Federation of Miners, co-defendant with W. D. Haywood, secretary-treasurer, in the conspiracy growing out of the murder of former Governor Steunenberg of Idaho, will not come to Denver to participate in the demonstration now being arranged for Haywood on his return to this city tomorrow. In its last analysis, every husband would get his own and the wives would get theirs; viz. the proper nutrition. And with well-nourished bodies there would be no physical or mental ills, no crime, no strife of any kind. Did you ever hear of a quarrel of any kind between a husband and a wife? ### CHINESE FEAR TO ERECT SKYSCRAPERS

Many buildings are believed in certain parts of China to exert a baneful influence. A correspondent tells of the case of such an edifice opposite the office of an official. "The official protested against the completion of the building. The house was finished nevertheless, and then the mischief began to do. One after another of the yamen guards took sick and several died. Finally the official himself felt a victim to this baneful influence of the house of the unworldly. Since his death large crowds have been erected between his yamen and the house in question and the march of the latter has been ordered to stop at the gate of the yamen."

SEWER AWARDS WILL BE MADE

Board of Public Works Ready to Grant Contracts on Grove and Webster Streets.

The Board of Public Works will hold a special meeting at four o'clock this afternoon to award the contracts for the Grove and Webster street sewers. In all probability the Sunset Contract and Supply Company will receive the contracts. The company is ready to begin work and has a carload of lumber at hand in anticipation of receiving the award.

This afternoon the Board of Public Works served a final notice upon boot-blacks to vacate the premises of the east side of Broadway between Fifteenth and Seventeenth streets to vacate before August 8. This land is within the fire limits and the present occupants are there on sufferance by the city.

DRIVING PILLS.
At the last meeting of the Board bids were called for driving piles on the water front, commencing at the foot of the training wall, and running easterly parallel with the training wall to the low tide line. Also from the former point north 1400 feet, enclosing a strip 1400 feet wide. Bids will be received next Wednesday. The line of piles will be driven to legally establish the city's claim to this portion of the water front.

The Board of Public Works has notified builders and electricians that by the new building ordinances all electric wiring within buildings must be inspected by representatives of the board before it can be accepted. In this way the board hopes to diminish the danger of fire and other accidents due to defective wiring.

STEAL $4000 AUTO, BUT FINALLY LEAVE IT

The automobile of A. J. Coffee, president of the A. J. Coffee Company, at 203 Telegraph avenue, which was stolen from in front of the Auditorium Pavilion in San Francisco while Coffee and a party of friends were witnessing the Britt-Nelson prize fight, was recovered last night at the corner of Market and Valencia streets, San Francisco. The machine was found standing at the junction of the Market and Valencia street car lines.

Thus far the police have been unable to get any description of the man who left the car there, except that two men drove it up Market street shortly before midnight and stopped at the corner of Market and Valencia streets. They walked rapidly around the corner and disappeared. Two chauffeurs who were apparently familiar with the handling of the machine, drove it away shortly after the night began.

The machine is a Los Angeles touring car, 40-horsepower and four-cylinder. It is valued at $4000.

HOLDS PRESBYTERIAN UNION IS QUITE VALID

FAYETTEVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 2.—In his opinion delivered yesterday in the Presbyterian Church case between the unionists and the anti-unionists, involving the right of possession in the property of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Chancellor Bearden held that the "union" was valid, but decreed that under the deeds conveying the property to the trustees of the several churches, the bill of the unionist asking for exclusive possession in the name of the United Church must be dismissed. Both sides appealed. The court refused to enter into the merits or merits of the various ecclesiastical questions.

Something New Every Day
Such is fashion's program for August. Nearly every train that arrives from New York brings us something of special interest and novelty, which has been carefully selected by our own buyers.

The Month When Fashions Change

—that's August, and this is one of the most interesting of all months to women who would be in the front rank of fashion. However, it is not such a difficult task as in years gone by. There was a time when we had to depend on Europe for our styles. Later, we depended on New York and took largely what the metropolis sent to us on this far-off coast. Now we depend upon ourselves. We send our own buyers to the world's leading markets, with a full knowledge of the general tastes and needs of this community. They carefully sift through hundreds of stock and select only that which is faultless in style and which is certain to give perfect satisfaction to the large clientele in whose interests they are buying. Some of the most striking novelties that have been created for this Fall wearing are already here and those who wish to keep posted on correct apparel should carefully read our store news and inspect our displays during this month.

This is a Season of Strict Tailoring in Ladies' Fall Suits

To a large extent the "fancy" idea has been eliminated and clean lines and tight-fitting effects, which always favor the "set-off" of the figure, are distinctly in vogue. The new suits come in chevrons, shadow stripes, diagonal patterns, herringbone serges, and, of course, the always correct broadcloths. Coats of three-quarter length and of hip length are decreed to be right, with skirts plaited, and with or without folds. And there are advance showings of these novelties already on display priced $17.50, $19.50, $22.50, $27.50 and $42.50

Ladies' Tailored Coats

Full length coats are decidedly popular this fall, with generally a loose-fitting effect. They are trimmed with a little dash of velvet on collars and cuffs, embroidered with braid or have fancy stitching. The leading colors are black, garnet, tan and gray. $13.95, $15.00, $20.00, $22.50 and $27.50

Ladies' Fall Coats

Special $15.00
This is a special lot of coats offered our buyer while he was selecting regular Fall garments. There was no particular need of our taking them, as our orders were already completed, but the tempting figures prevailed and the purchase was made. They are a handsome lot of black coats, three-quarter length, strictly tailored and with ivy fronts. $20.00 would be a fair price for them. For the opening special we have marked them $15.00

NOVELTY WAISTS

There is no possibility of the shirt waist losing any of its popularity so long as the designers send out such handsome novelties as have come to us this fall, especially in Net and Silk Waists—daintier than ever and better values, while showing many effective details that are decidedly new.

The NET WAISTS upon which we would like your judgment are daintily embellished with lace and medallions and come in many grades.

$4.50, $5.50, $6.50 and to $20
The NEW SILK WAISTS include many novelties in plaid taffetas, and also many new color effects in Roman Stripes. Nothing will be more fashionable than waists of this type. $5.95 and $6.50

The NEW MESSALINE WAISTS embrace every style from those that are plain tucked to some very elaborate lace creations, colors are white, lavender, pink, blue and black. $5, $6, $7.50 and to $25

WHITE LAWN WAISTS

When selecting a waist it is not a matter of whether it be tucked or puffed, whether it be trimmed with lace or embroidered, or whether it be open back or front; it is a question of what is correct and what will best suit the individual who is to wear it.

Such is the idea that guides every purchase of waists, made by our buyers. The result is shown in the popularity of the department, which is known as a place where you can get "just what you want," and after all this is the only test worth considering.

As to values and prices you will always find our big waist department the lead. Grades at 98c, $1.25, $1.50, $2.00, up to the most elegant white waists at $16.50.

The Result of Many Years' Search "Cadet" Stockings for Children

Since children first wore stockings there has been a general clamor for stockings that would never wear out at knees, heels and toes. Of course exactly such stockings never will be found so long as boys are boys.

For years we have been searching for the particular brand that came nearest to this ideal, and we are now satisfied that we have found it in the CADET HOSIERY for children.

The CADET stockings are re-enforced with special heavy, durable linen threads in all those parts where there is any strain or extra wear. The claim that they will never rip or tear is founded on fact. They will wear out eventually, but not until long after you have expected them to. 25c pr.

Fall Broadcloths

Every indication points toward a very strong broadcloth season, and our preparations are a good way ahead even of the brisk trade that we anticipate. They include the best of imported and domestic broadcloths.

52-inch, all-wool broadcloth of every color the fashion demands; the best grade to be had at this price—$1.00 Yard

54-inch, all-wool broadcloth, desirable, medium weight, in excellent assortment of colors—$1.50 a Yard

Fall Silk Novelties

A bright lot of novelty silk plaid waistings, new in patterns and shadings; green, blue, brown, garnet and also black and white effects with fancy, satin stripes. Exceptionally good choice. $1.25 a Yard

Another popular silk for fall wear is the Roman stripe pattern, which comes with background of all seasonable shadings, including tan and brown, myrtle, navy, garnet and white, 21 inches wide—$1.25 a Yard

The Place of the Corset

The importance of the corset in modern costume must not be underestimated. On it depends that intangible yet invaluable element of successful dressing known as "the effect."

Corsetiers study fashions in advance as closely as modistes, and the result of their work is shown in the new Fall models which are especially designed to give the best possible effect to the new Fall costume.

Our Corset display includes the KABO, the HELENE, La Marguerite, Royal Worcester, Thompson Glove Fitting, B. & G. W. B., and other models.

One or other of these will certainly be found with the exact shape which is best calculated to give perfect satisfaction. Grades from $1.00 to $12.50

Special Summer Offerings in Men's Furnishings

In advance of the arrival of the fall novelties in shirts, neckwear and other lines, we are conducting a general house-cleaning in this section. One dollar possesses the ordinary purchasing power of $1.50 in many lines, including negligee shirts, stiff-bosom shirts, fancy neckwear and men's underwear. This department is really continuing its July clearance sale.

Ladies' Hosiery

WILL RESTRICT AUTO PIRATES

Extortionate Charge Wrung
From Maude Adams Reacts
on Los Angeles Chauffeurs.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 1.—As the result of a bill for auto hire amounting to $250 for seven days' use charged to Maude Adams, the actress, by Clarence J. Black, of Lyke, a Black, proprietor of a Spring street restaurant, the city council has taken cognizance of the grasping attitude of automobile owners in this city, and are now preparing to regulate the rates.

Councilman Healy has been informed that the "auto-for-hire" men in this city are acting as pirates in their charges, and he suggested to his brother councilmen that auto fees be regulated by ordinance to $3 for the first hour and $2 an hour for each hour thereafter.

Every member of the council seemed to think the motion a good one, and the question was referred to the committee of the whole, with a view of instructing the city attorney to prepare an ordinance.

While in the city Miss Adams hired an auto for $15 a day. She had the machine for five days. Then the chauffeur owner swindled the cab by taxing trip tolls. Instead of a bill for $175, the actress was served with a writ of attachment for $250 at the close of her performance of "Arlene" at the Broadway Theatre. The bill was paid by her manager.

ARTIST WEDS INDIAN MAID

Teacher Woos Pueblo Girl Seven Years Before He Wins
Her in Marriage.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Aug. 2.—Frederick W. Canfield of Utica, N. Y., an artist for several years at the head of the Carlisle Indian school art department, has married Anna Gouyette, a full-blooded Pueblo Indian of the Seama village.

The wedding took place at the estufa of the Seama village under the tribal ceremony, the bride being given away by the head man of the village and with the blessings of the tribal god. Immediately afterward the two were married by a Presbyterian minister.

Canfield is a son of W. W. Canfield, editor of the Utica Observer. He met the Indian girl while she was a pupil at Carlisle and for more than seven years has been her suitor.

Up to a short time ago his advances had been rejected because of the prejudice of the Seama Indians. He met Canfield and his bride will go to Neah Bay, Wash., where he will continue his work among the northwestern Indians.

McKinlay as executor.

MAY REMOVE BANTEL NOW

City Treasurer Is Accused of Illegally Removing Funds
From U. S. Mint.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 2.—It is now claimed that Mayor Taylor intends bringing an action with the end of removing City Treasurer Bantel from office. The treasurer is accused by City Auditor Horton of illegally removing $2,000,000 of the city funds from the United States Mint, and of keeping the money in his private possession at the Western National Bank. The ground of the Mayor's action will be that Bantel has violated a provision of the city charter.

Under the charter the Treasurer and the Auditor are the joint custodians of the funds and the Treasurer is not permitted to remove these funds without the knowledge of his associate official. Horton declares that he knew nothing about the removal of the funds mentioned until yesterday, when he received the following letter:

HIS NOTIFICATION.

San Francisco, Cal., July 31, 1907.

S. W. Horton, Esq., City and County Auditor.

My Dear Sir:—I have been notified by the United States Mint authorities to remove by August 1 the $2,000,000 which the city and county has on deposit in the mint since April 18, 1906. The charter requires that the Auditor and Treasurer shall be custodians of a joint custody vault. The present quarters of the City Treasury has not the facilities to accommodate such a large sum of money in addition to the $2,000,000 or more now in the custody of the Treasurer. I therefore respectfully request that you and your attorney confer with me at your earliest convenience in order to decide upon a proper and safe place for the restoration of $2,000,000 now at the mint and also that the provision of the charter may be fully complied with. Yours respectfully,

CHAS. A. BANTEL, Treasurer.

AUDITOR ANGRY.

When learning of the removal of the funds Auditor Horton, in company with his lawyer, visited the Treasurer's office at the Western National Bank at the corner of Market and Powell streets. "So you have removed $2,000,000 from the mint, have you?" Auditor Horton promptly began.

"Yes, I have," replied Treasurer Bantel. "What right have you to take this money? Why did you take it out of the mint without my knowledge?"

"Because I wanted it," Bantel sharply answered.

"You seem to think you own this money," retorted Horton.

"I own it while I am the treasurer and it is in my custody," said Bantel.

The auditor gave notice that the money, the $2,000,000 in the mint and the $2,000,000 which the treasurer had taken to the vault in his office, would have to be placed in the big joint custody vault at the city hall. Then he went and conferred with Mayor Taylor and an examination of the municipal vault was made. It was found that only new outer doors were needed to make the safe as good as it ever was, and the Mayor stated that the necessary repairs would be made immediately.

an notification having been sent to me," said Auditor Horton. "It is a very serious matter, for the charter is very explicit in directing that the auditor shall have joint control of the funds. I do not know when the money was taken from the mint, and I do not know what the treasurer has done with it, except from his statement that he has it in a vault at his office."

"I want to see that money, and I want to count it. It is my duty under the circumstances to see that the fund is all right, and I am going to do it."

BANTEL SAYS.

"I removed the $2,000,000 from the mint to my vault in the City Treasurer's office a year ago last month," said Treasurer Bantel last night. "I sent notice to the auditor that the money was to be taken, and when I took it one of the auditor's deputies was present. Since that time I have made monthly reports to the auditor showing the amount of money held by me at the vaults in my office. My reason for taking the money out of the mint was that every time I needed to draw any I had to go to the superintendent and to the sub-treasurer, and there was so much red tape that it was very inconvenient for me."

The last report made by the treasurer, on June 30th, shows $2,467,228.54 on hand in the Western National bank vaults, by Auditor Horton says he will insist on seeing the gold and counting it.

Weak Spot in the Line.

Reform has lifted its banner and its voice in Oakland. Francis J. Heney was there when it was done and assisted-at the doing. J. Lincoln Steffens was there. Duncan McPherson was there. Other relics of the earlier and purer days of the republic were present. Altogether it was a most auspicious occasion, a great day for California and a lovely chance to talk. Not the least inspiring feature of the occasion was the spectacle of former Governor Pardee and former Mayor William R. Davis standing shoulder to shoulder as leaders of the rescue party organized to save the principles of Lincoln and Steffens from contamination and extermination. Heney was there to call out the grand jury if necessary, and Steffens was present to point significantly to the notches on Heney's gun and his record as a bottle-scarred veteran.

But the symposium lacked one voice and one presence to make the occasion a complete triumph. On the field of Waterloo, Wellington rode along the line and cried in a loud voice:

"Is Private Dan McCafferty in the ranks?"

"He is, your grace, and ready for action." The great duke's brow cleared and his eyes brightened.

"Then let the battle begin," he said. The rest is history. But in the line-up of patriots and statesmen at the Hotel Metropole, the noblest Roman of them all was missing. When the hosts marshaled to storm the ogre's castle and rescue the captive maiden, the pure, puissant, ponderous, pedantic, pedagogic, parlez vous editor of the Fresno Republican was among the missing. Private Dan McCafferty was not in the ranks, and the battle about to begin. The fate of nations often trembles in the balance and is sometimes decided by mere trifles. Notwithstanding the heroic exertions of Private Dan McCafferty, Wellington would have lost at Waterloo but for a shower the night before. Vicksburg fell because a Confederate general dallied with another man's wife, and the cause of political reform in California may be lost because Chester Rowell remained in Fresno hunting split infinitives with a parlor rifle when the legions were mustering for the shock of battle. As the bugles sounded the charge, no spurring charger came with tidings of the absent. Editor Rowell's place in the ranks remained unfilled, and still the battle was ordered.

Later news will be awaited with the deepest anxiety. Perhaps the god of battles will overlook the gap in the line where the Fresno editor should have stood, but we fear the worst. Wellington always refused to discuss the disastrous possibilities had Private Dan McCafferty failed in his duty at Waterloo, but one of his biographers makes no secret of his belief that all England would today be shrugging shoulders, eating frog legs and dancing the can can. Heaven forefend that no such calamity befall reform in California because Roderick persisted in poring over hog Latin and correcting the syntax of the enemies of good government instead of sounding his horn at a critical moment.

But we may be happy yet. Mayor Mott assured the assembled hosts in his most rotund tones that there are still good bargains to be had in Oakland real estate. He spoke truth. The path is yet open to victory.

State pride is flattered by naming one of the finest ships in the navy California. It is doubly gratified by assigning a Californian to command her. Captain Phelps is one of the most capable officers in the American navy, the son of a famous old sea fighter who floated the pennant of rear admiral. He has a host of friends all over this State who will be delighted to learn that he has been given command of a crack ship named after his own State.

The news that John Sharp Williams has defeated Governor Vardaman in the Mississippi Senatorial contest will give satisfaction to the entire country. While the Republican party will find Williams an abler, stronger and more effective opponent than Vardaman, the dignity and force of the Senate will be strengthened. The country at large will be the gainer, because Williams is a man of broad culture and statesmanlike views regarding our external policy. On questions where partisanship is not joined, Williams can be relied on to take high ground. Vardaman is a man of considerable force and ability, but he is a narrow, sectional reactionary, holding to extreme and obsolete views. His State has done well to keep him out of the Senate.

While Daniel Guggenheim, who represents the projectors of a huge ore smelter at Baden, represents that the machinery which was assembled for the establishment has been dispersed among the other smelters owned by the trust, he admits that the San Mateo county project has not been abandoned, but that he hopes to be able later on to persuade those who are opposing the location selected that they are mistaken. Mr. Guggenheim must have great faith in his persuasive powers if he really thinks he can induce the opponents of his scheme to consent to the erection of a plant whose operation means the ruin of their property.

Pasadena is in grave danger of being severely punished because two of its officials—the mayor and assessor—have combined to place arbitrarily an excessive tax on the electric railway properties controlled by Henry E. Huntington. According to all accounts the assessment has been inspired by a species of spite, and now Huntington threatens to retaliate by abandoning all the plans which he had formed for important betterments in the town. The more liberal and progressive citizens of Pasadena are, therefore, much exercised over the situation, as Huntington is well known to be a man who when moved to make a threat, rarely if ever relents, and almost invariably carries it out. Huntington's electric railway system has had much to do with Pasadena's past development, and the plans which he had recently matured meant much more for it. Now the town and its people must suffer serious punishment for the indiscretions of a couple of pinheaded officials.

If recent representations of official explorers of antiquities in Egypt that Ramesses the Great was not the builder of the monuments bearing his name but a pronounced fraud and egotist who had his name inscribed on all of Egypt's ancient structures in order to deceive posterity and create a fictitious fame for himself is true, it is a vast amount of literature bearing upon the period when the Israelites were held in bondage in Egypt which will have to be abandoned as valueless and destroyed and a new history of the period will have to be written. Professor Naville, one of the best explorers in Egypt, has this to say about Ramesses: "The more we discover about Ramesses the more convinced are we that he was a fraud, who was not great in any way except in his vanity." The chances are, however, that some one will come to the front to show that Naville and his colleagues are upstarts and fakirs and impostors after a little cheap notoriety.

THE PRESIDENT SAYS THE CROP OF CHILDREN IS THE BEST CROP OF THE NATION—Chicago Tribune.

Contraband of War.

In committee of the whole yesterday, The Hague peace conference decided to abolish contraband of war. The vote stood 25 for the British proposition, 5 against it, 5 abstaining from voting and 10 absentees. The nations voting against the abolition were the United States, Germany, France, Russia and Montenegro. Japan, Spain, Panama, Greece and Roumania were the abstainers. The ten absentees are not announced. Had those who were absent and those who abstained from voting joined with the nations voting in the negative, they would still have been in the minority.

The action of the conference cannot be accepted, however, as binding on the nations represented in the conference. Before the Russian-Japanese war international law clearly defined the articles constituting contraband of war. The definition had been adopted at the Geneva convention, which also prohibited the use of certain destructive agents, such as Greek fire and soft-headed bullets, in battle, either on land or on sea; but Russia ignored the definition at the beginning of hostilities with Japan, by designating as contraband articles which were not included in the list laid down in the articles of international law. As one of the opponents of the abolition of contraband, Russia will in all probability ignore the rule laid down by The Hague conference in the war in which it becomes involved in the future, just as it refused to be controlled by the restrictions laid on civilized nations by the Geneva convention regarding the seizure of property as contraband.

The Department of Commerce and Labor has adopted the peculiar expedient of naming three places on the Mexican border where foreigners who are entitled to the privilege may enter the United States from "our sister republic." These places are Tia Juana, Campo and Calexico. Aliens crossing the border at any other point without permits obtained from immigration inspectors stationed at the towns named will be classed as unlawful entries, liable to arrest and deportation. The trouble with the new plans of the department to protect the border is that they will not protect. Most of the aliens—chiefly Chinese and Japanese—who have slipped into the United States unlawfully across the Mexican border have eluded detection and arrest by crossing the line at points which still remain uncovered by the boundary patrol.

It is extraordinary that California newspapers should lend their columns to Eastern attacks on the California member of the Cabinet. It is still more extraordinary that Secretary Metcalf should be criticized for ordering the fleet to cruise in the Pacific. The fleet belongs to the people of the western shore as much as it belongs to the people of any other section. It has as much right in the Pacific as it has in the Atlantic. People of this coast would like to see it. Moreover, the fleet will put in circulation about $30,000 a day out here, which will aid business. Its presence on these shores will bring great numbers of visitors from the interior to the seaport towns. Along the Atlantic coast they are opposed to the fleet coming out here because its departure means a temporary loss of business. Hence they express fears that the presence of American warships in California, Oregon and Washington waters will offend the Japanese and invite some dreadful calamity. They pretend that Secretary Metcalf has made a grave mistake, if nothing worse. But why California journals should give serious heed to such fol de rol passes comprehension. It is simply a jealous kick directed at the Pacific Coast.

Though he has been in the House for years and is somewhat over 50, Mr. Churchill has a youthful face and a boyish manner. His intimate friends pronounce him "lovable," but his abruptness on meeting comparative strangers is at times disconcerting. Recently the undersecretary met a lady distinguished in a rather different field, who held out her hand at an evening party, saying: "Mr. Churchill, how pleased I am to see you!" "But I never saw you," Mr. Churchill answered, and he said nothing more.

WOMAN MADE TO RULE MAN FOR SHE IS HIS MASTER

EPIGRAMS BY MAGISTRATE WALSH.

Woman was made to rule man. All down the ages man has flattered himself that he was lord of creation, but he is wrong. Woman is his master.

When a wife's independence is lost her will is gone. When her will is gone love becomes involuntary. That is not love at all.

A quarrel gives a couple a good chance to sound the depths and shoals of each other's love.

An occasional quarrel gives zest to the insipid sweetness of ordinary life.

MAGISTRATE WALSH AND SKETCHES ILLUSTRATING HIS VIEWS ON WOMEN AS RULERS OF THE HOME.

Startling Utterance Made by Eastern Justice.

(By ANGELA MORGAN).

"The woman should rule the home. She is man's master. All down the ages man has flattered himself that he was the lord of creation. He has never been. Woman is, always was and always will be the ruler of man."

This startling utterance was made to me by Magistrate Walsh in Harlem court after he had discharged a wrangling husband and wife, Bernard Knapp and Jennie Knapp.

I sat on the bench with His Honor for an entire session and listened to the marital wags of dozens of disillusioned wives and unhappy husbands.

"This is a daily procession," the Magistrate commented. "Every day I listen to such narratives. Too many of the quarrels are of such nature that they should be settled at home. Wives and husbands should bear with one another's infirmities. It is amazing what trivial differences are brought into court."

SAYS WOMAN SHOULD RULE.

"But how are these disagreements to be settled at home? Who is to settle them? Which one should decide?"

Then it was that he expressed the emphatic opinion given above.

"Woman should rule the home. She is designed to be man's master. Whether he admits the fact or not, it is true. Woman's rule? Why, it isn't even a question of whether she should or not—she does, that's all. She is the real master."

"But how can you give her the right to settle questions," I asked, "when man is supposed to be the superior mind? Man is the stronger, isn't he?"

"Man is made of tougher fibre, to be sure," said Magistrate Walsh. "He is built of coarser material, is physically stronger, for the reason that he is the one to grapple with the rough problems in the world. But why does he make this fight at all? Isn't it for the woman?"

LEGAL LASHING CAUSES WIFE BEATER TO FAINT

Screams of Man Under Whip Resound Through Jail Until He Falls Unconscious From Sheriff's Blows.

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 2.—Fifteen lashes across the back with a cat-o-nine-tails at the whipping post, was the punishment inflicted on Henry Shaeffer yesterday for beating his wife on the street early in July. Shaeffer, who was taken off his hands by recovered moon and shook hands with Deputy Sheriff Frank Beatty, who had wielded the whip.

The wife-beater was stripped to the waist and fastened by handcuffs to the bars of the cell. The whip had fallen the third time before Shaeffer's determination not to flinch was forgotten, and his cries could be heard all over the jail. When the fifteenth lash had been struck and the husband was taken off Shaeffer's wrists he sank into a chair fainting. His shoulders were ridged with welts.

But she goes every day for a lesson

To the sharp who lives up on the ridge,

With her newest and stylish dress on;

Yes, in spite of this rare privilege,

And the fact that she daily essays it,

Mrs. White says it's wrong to play bridge,

And it is—in the way that she plays it!

KISS SENDS MORE TO HELL THAN WHISKY, SAYS PASTOR

Los Angeles Minister Warns Sweethearts Against "Emotional Explosion" That Sends to Perdition.

(From the San Diego News.)

Is it well for young people who are engaged to be married to kiss each other? Certain scientists have answered this question in the negative and have pointed out the danger of an interchange of noxious microbes during the osculatory performance. There is reason, however, to suppose that these warnings have lessened the kissing practice. But now the pulpit in the person of Rev. D. L. Bass, pastor of a Baptist church at Los Angeles, has added its fulmination against the pleasant custom.

Rev. Mr. Bass sees in kissing moral rather than physical danger, and he expresses himself on the subject with vehemence that is only equaled by the apparently profound knowledge that he displays regarding this topic. Moreover, the reverend gentleman does not mince his words. He declares: "The kiss devil is doing more to all Hades than the whisky devil, the drug devil, and all the other devils rolled into one. Sweethearts should never kiss until they are married."

EMOTIONAL EXPLOSION.

He backs up this assertion by saying: "Let sweethearts hold each other's hands as a token of their pure affection. And when they part, the man may permit his lips for feeling, gentle, respectful pressure. But this should be all. There is something wonderfully magnetic and thrilling in a kiss. When two sets of lips come together like two clouds charged with electricity, one positive, one negative, the result, in certain cases, is an emotional explosion and cloudburst of excessive passion and ecstasy."

"The kiss goes straight like the shock of a galvanic battery, to the heart, and the weaker party always is paralyzed under the blow, whether for good or ill, or whether for weal or woe. Nothing has more of Heaven's fire or fire of Hades in it than the kiss of a sweetheart or of a villain, and the first step of a fiend incarnate in order to destroy the innocent but deluded victim in his clutches is to get his lips to hers. Thousands of girls have surrendered the fortress of their character to the kiss of a libertine, who well knows its psychological, dynamic power, when the affections and confidence have been won in woman's heart. God deliver us from the kissing devil!"

HOW DOES HE KNOW.

If it were not impertinent, some persons might naturally wonder how it chances that a clergyman knows so much about these peculiarly improper kisses which he describes so eloquently and so minutely. Much that he says will be news to scores of honest married couples whose courtship was along the usual lines and who never dreamed of "emotional explosions and cloudbursts," or of being on the brink of Hades, when they exchanged their modest endearments before entering upon matrimony. The Los Angeles dominie seems to have revived the old "paroxysmal kiss" theory, which was a feature of the Beecher-Tilton scandal of decades ago. He means well, of course, but his words will not reach the vicious, and his fulminations will hardly deter spit-respecting young people from the old-fashioned courtship. Engaged young persons will continue to kiss, in spite of microbes or threats of Hades so long as there is marrying and giving in marriage. Perhaps they would better not, but they will.

Bass? Bass? Is there not a long-eared quadruped whose name suggestively rhymes with that of this reverend authority on kissing?

Practicing Shorthand in Church

"I counted seven girls taking down my sermon in shorthand this morning," said a Methodist minister. "I am getting tired of this business of turning church into school. It is a degradation of the Sabbath and of the sanctuary, and it gets worse year by year."

"When the thing first began I admit that I was flattered. I thought the solitary shorthand writer in my front pew was a reporter. I took unusual pains that morning, and I searched all the newspapers the next day. In vain, of course. The shorthand writer was merely a student of stenography using me to practice on."

"Students of stenography should practice on actors and on lecturers, but no, that would cost a little money. Nothing suits them but ministers, and every Sunday, all over our land, young men and women, with their pads and fountain pens, go to church solely to improve their shorthand."

STRANGE SEPARATION OF LOVERS ENDS IN ROMANCE

Engaged Man Sent to Liberia Is Lost to the World, but Wedding Comes Seven Years Later.

SPOKANE, August 2.—Married—Mrs. Olive D. Hoag and W. E. Rothery, at Seattle, July 15; at home after August 1. Behind the foregoing simple announcement in Spokane and Puget Sound newspapers is a romance which dates back to 1891, when Colonel W. E. Rothery, now northwestern manager of a newspaper syndicate, and Miss Olive Draper, afterward a prominent newspaper writer, were sweethearts in Philadelphia.

Shortly after their betrothal Rothery was appointed by President Grover Cleveland to go to Liberia on a secret mission for the government. He and his bride were to be married upon his return to the United States.

Soon after reaching the African coast he was seized by fever, which continued several months, and in the absence of news of his condition, a report gained credence that he had died. The following year Miss Draper married M. Hoag, one of the Colonel's most intimate friends. On his return to Philadelphia, two years later, Colonel Rothery learned of his bride's wedding, and five years afterward he also married. He returned to his business in Philadelphia, where he represented Liberia as consul, serving also as Liberian Commissioner to the Columbia Exposition in Chicago.

Seven years afterward he went to the Pacific Northwest, engaging in newspaper work, first in Los Angeles and then at Everett, Washington. He and Mrs. Hoag had lost all trace of each other until they met in Spokane, a short time ago, when they learned they were both widowed, and the wedding, which was prevented by a chain of circumstances fifteen years before followed.

Mrs. Rothery is widely known for her literary and newspaper work in Chicago, New York and Los Angeles.

Planned Elopements.

Mme. Bob Walters, the famous organizer of motor car elopements, died in Paris recently. She was a woman whose long series of eccentric professions was the delight of the Parisians. Born in 1856, she, fifteen years ago, started the gay city by the introduction of luminous dances on the stage. Next she set up business as a lion tamer, and finally became a dealer in automobiles. It was in the capacity that she invented the new role of elopement contractor, for which she will be long remembered.

A young lady wished to elope with her lover. She applied in a happy moment to Mme. Bob Walters at her premises, 83 Avenue de la Grande Armee. Madame undertook at once the management of the affair. She supplied both the automobile and the chauffeur that carried off the young lady from under the very eyes of her chaperon as she was returning from a singing lesson. The event created an immense sensation. For a week amateur detectives and chauffeurs scoured France for the missing girl. At the end of that period the lady returned with her husband; the parents absolved them and gave them their blessing, and paid Mme. Bob Walters a handsome sum over and above the figure of her account for the trouble she had taken.

This incident established her reputation, and she was called upon frequently to assist other amorous couples. One of her most famous "coups" was the successful carrying off of an unfortunate husband who had been wrongfully confined in a lunatic asylum by his wife. As an automobilist she was herself an expert, and in 1902 beat Thery, one of the champions of the automobile world, in the flying kilometer race at Gallion.

HUGGING IN WALTZ UNDER BAN WITH OMAHA SOCIETY

Dancing Masters Sign Ironclad Agreement to Put End to Old Time, but Popular Amusement.

OMAHA, Neb., Aug. 2.—There is to be no more hugging in waltzes and other round dances in fashionable social circles in Omaha. The dancing masters of this city, according to an announcement made by one of them today, have signed an ironclad agreement not to teach hugging by pupils at their academies and not to permit it by pupils or others who may attend the "hops" given under their auspices.

They will hereafter teach their pupils to preserve a more or less formal attitude when on the floor. The new and correct position, the masters say, will be an improvement on the old, so far as gracefulness is concerned. The gentleman will lightly rest his right hand on his partner's back, his left gently clutching the tips of her fingers. Her left hand will be gently rested on his right forearm, and both bodies will be held erect.

STRAWBERRY PIE.

FAINT HEART

She stood before him, tall and fair

And gracious, on that summer day,

With June's first roses in her hair,

And on her cheek the bloom of May.

But rosy cheek and dimple chin,

And raven lashes drooping low,

Conceal the answer he would win;

It might be Yes; would it be No?

Ah! if 'twere No—his throbbing heart

Stood fairly still with sudden pain;

And if 'twere Yes, the world so wide

His deep content could scarce contain,

So wondrous fair! how could she stoop

To favor such a one as he?

Ah, sweet suspense that still leaves hope!

Ah, pain of sad uncertainty.

He held her hand so white and small,

And moved to press it with his lips,

But changed his mind, and let it fall,

With childish touch of finger tips,

And took the seat she offered him

Upon the sofa by her side,

Nor made the space between them less,

Which seemed so narrow, yet so wide.

Then gazing on the perfect face,

The dimpled mouth, the serious eyes,

And, drinking in with eager ears,

The music of her low replies,

He let the bright hours drift away

Nor told the secret of his heart.

But when the shadows lengthened

Rose, all reluctant, to depart.

And stammered forth with blushing cheek,

An eager, timorous request

That she, for old acquaintance sake,

Would grant the rosebud from her breast.

She gave it him with downcast eyes,

And watched him leave her with a sigh.

"So good," she said, "so true, so wise;

Ah, me! if he were not so shy!"

POLICE CHIEF BACK FROM PROFITABLE EASTERN TOUR

BRINGS IDEAS FOR USE HERE

Prison Methods Are Inspected by Wilson.

POLICE CHIEF WILSON.

Chief of Police Adelfert Wilson returned home last night from a tour of the principal cities of the country, having been absent since June 6th. The purpose of the tour was to study police methods and management in other cities and the construction and care of jails.

The chief's itinerary included visits to Franklin and New Orleans, La.; Atlanta, Ga.; Norfolk and Jamestown, Va.; Newport News, Washington, D. C.; Philadelphia, New York, Boston, Portland, Me.; Camden, N. J.; the chief's old home, Albany and Buffalo, N. Y.; Detroit, Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City, Mo., and Denver.

HAS NEW IDEAS.
At Jamestown he attended the convention of police chiefs which was held in one of the buildings on the exposition grounds. He visited the police headquarters of each city and gathered all the information respecting the management of the department and the city jails, and says he has brought back with him some ideas which will be profitable to adopt in the management of the department here.

"I made a special study," said the chief in an interview this morning, "of the manner in which the police handled the crowds congesting the principal streets in the larger cities, and found it both highly interesting and instructive. Then I visited the jails in every one of the cities where I stopped to study how they have been constructed and kept, and gathered considerable information in that respect which will help us here."

"The personnel of the Oakland police department is equal to that of any city I have seen during my tour, and for the size of our city the department will compare favorably with that of any of the eastern cities."

"Wherever I went I was hospitably

SERIOUSLY ILL FROM TAHITI MISSION WORK

BERKELEY, Aug. 2.—Rev. J. K. Harrison, superintendent of Congregational missions in Tahiti, is seriously ill at the Roosevelt Hospital. He was brought from the island by G. J. de Kay, who returned from Tahiti on the Mariposa on the last trip. Rev. Harrison is suffering from a general breakdown, the result of his strenuous work, and is said to be in a serious condition. The attendants at the hospital say he is still in the condition he was when brought to the institution, and the doctors are unable to foretell the results of his illness, although believing there is a chance for his recovery. Should he recover he will not return to his work for more than a year, but will take a vacation until thoroughly strong and fitted for the hard work he found in Tahiti.

San Franciscans will soon be talking with a sigh of the good old days immediately after the earthquake.—New York Evening Post.

treated, and I would have enjoyed the trip immensely if it had not been for the intensely hot weather. It was too hot altogether for enjoyment, and nothing short of business and the call of duty would prevail upon me to make such a trip again at this season of the year."

ALL PREPARING TO LAND TROOPS ON MOROCCO SOIL

French Cabinet Egged on to Drastic Action by Newspapers and the Public Opinion.

PARIS, August 2.—An extraordinary meeting of the Cabinet to discuss the Moroccan situation was held this afternoon. Foreign Minister Pichon expressed himself in favor of immediate action by France to secure reparation for the murders of Europeans at Casa Blanca and to insure the safety of the Europeans still there. Inasmuch as France and Spain were charged by the Algeiras conference to act together in the matter of policing Casa Blanca, M. Pichon advocated as a first step, proposing to Spain the immediate landing of French and Spanish troops at the scene of the massacre.

The French newspapers, excepting the socialist journals, are unanimous in demanding that the Government take decisive steps to enforce respect for France in Morocco.

BLACKSMITH IS VICTIM OF EXPLOSION OF GASOLINE

By the explosion of gasoline in the waste scraps that he threw in the furnace of the Sohst carriage works at Eighth and Franklin streets, Manuel De Monte, a young blacksmith living at 1247 Center street, was painfully burned about the face and upper portion of his body at 10 o'clock this morning. The furnace was completely wrecked.

De Monte was gathering together the waste paper and clothes about the paint shop. Some of them were saturated with gasoline, and as soon as they were thrown in contact with the heat of the furnace the flames flared out with an explosion that nearly wrecked the building.

De Monte's face, arms and body burns were dressed at the Receiving Hospital by Dr. H. Koford.

AN ACT OF PHILANTHROPY RESULTS IN GOOD FORTUNE

Physician Learns That Mine He Purchased to Assist Penniless Patient Has Rich Vein of Gold in It.

What Dr. Leon B. Stratton considered at the time an act of charity to a penniless patient promises to result in the acquisition of a fortune by the philanthropic physician. Dr. Stratton is a brain specialist of Los Angeles. He is at present in Oakland as an insanity expert in the Horvath forgery trial.

Several months ago a needy-looking man applied to Dr. Stratton for treatment for tuberculosis. He said that he was without money and unable to pay for the doctor's care. After he had received several treatments, in addition to some financial aid, he offered to sell Dr. Stratton his rights to a gold claim in Nevada for a trifling sum. Believing that the man deserved aid Dr. Stratton purchased the claim and promptly forgot all about it. Shortly afterward the consumptive disappeared and has not been heard of since.

Yesterday Dr. Stratton received word that a prospector working near the claim had discovered a rich vein of gold which runs directly through his property. Several offers to purchase his rights to the claim accompanied the dispatch. One man offered $5000 while another suggested a floating syndicate at $200,000.

Dr. Stratton, who is staying at the Hotel Metropole, will leave tomorrow morning to see his mine and open negotiations for developing its resources. He says he will make the former owner a substantial present if he can find him.

TO TEST BATTLESHIP MADE BY GOVERNMENT

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—Unusual interest attaches to the trial trip of the battleship Connecticut, which will be made over the Rockland, Me., course, August 3 and 4. Rear Admiral Davis will be aboard the Connecticut during her speed contest. The fact that the Connecticut is the first battleship of the first class to be built by the government instead of by contractors explains the exceptional public interest in her. Naval men expect to obtain valuable information from a comparison of the Connecticut with the Louisiana.

The keels of both ships were laid at the same time, the former by the government at the Brooklyn yard and the latter by contractors. It is believed that the Connecticut will demonstrate the government's ability to produce battleships of the first-class that are in all points equal to those built under the contract system. The Connecticut left the navy

STEALS HORSE ACROSS BAY; BRINGS IT HERE

D. G. Pierce, 410 Franklin street, San Francisco, has notified the local police of the theft yesterday of a mare hitched to a buggy. Officer Conway found a bay mare hitched to a black piano top buggy at Fifteenth street and Broadway yesterday and took it to the City Hall stables. The rig answers the description given by Pierce and he has been notified to come over and identify it.

S. Simon, 1785 Post street, San Francisco, reports the theft of two gold rings on a train going from San Francisco to Sonoma yesterday.

Here's trusting that Alfonso Bourbon Jr., will not grow up to be a weakling, a molly-coddle, a conspirator, a liar, a reactionary or an undesirable citizen.—Charlotte Observer.

WILL MOVE THE FERRY

San Francisco Landing to Be Made at Foot of Van Ness Avenue

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 2.—Practically in control of that portion of the water front in the vicinity of the foot of Van Ness avenue, the Southern Pacific Company has at last expressed its determination to effect a transfer of the San Francisco ferry slips from the foot of Market street to a portion of the waterfront west of Montgomery street.

For the past two years this project has been discussed from time to time, but because of the opposition of the ferry piers to the change the matter has been allowed to drag. With the purchase of the water front in the foot of Market street by Black Point, the interests, however, have again taken the subject up, and after due consideration were assured a number of property owners with holdings adjacent to the proposed railroad yards of the permanent establishment of the new San Francisco slips.

Already steps are being taken by the agents of the Southern Pacific with a view to commencing construction upon the new wharves. Although the railroad representatives emphatically deny any plans of this nature, it is known that the company has in mind the building of two big piers not far from the end of Van Ness avenue. For the past two weeks this site has been gone over by a number of surveyors, who are said to be in the Harriman employ, with a view toward commencing construction work upon the new docks.

Just when the Southern Pacific Company intends to arrange for the transfer has not been made public. One report has it that the change is to be made within the next two years, and that the new piers will be used for freight until such time as the railroad decides to move its passenger boats from the Market-street terminus to Black Point.

ATTACKS THREE-CENT RATE

Railroad Is Charged with Doing Clever Trick in Nebraska

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—An attack was made today on the three-cent mile rate of the Union Pacific Railroad Company by Charles A. Sibley, a resident of Nebraska. Sibley's complaint was filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission, and in its nature is practically unique in the history of the commission. The complaint alleges that the Union Pacific Railroad exacts a rate of three cents a mile from interstate passengers, although within the limits of Nebraska, it charges a rate of only two cents a mile.

He says he travels from a point in western Nebraska through a part of Colorado, to another point in Nebraska, and is required to pay the three-cent rate, because the railroad company holds that that is interstate business.

This, he asserts, is a showing by the company of undue preference to interstate passengers and he asks the commission to fix a just maximum passenger rate which the company shall charge on interstate business.

JUST A BURNS TALL STORY

Chauffeur Declares He Bluffed Dinan at the Prize Fight

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 2.—Juliet, to the contrary notwithstanding, there is such a name as the clan of Dinan discovered at the Britt-Nelson fight Wednesday night. The name was "Burns" and it was construed to mean "Don't burn" or "Keep away" or something of the kind.

Edly Compton, chauffeur for William J. Burns, the knickerbocker, attended the battle and occupied a choice seat for which he paid the required price. Shortly after he came to Billy Dinan, brother of the indicted chief of police, appeared in the crowd.

"I want to sit here," said Compton.

"I paid for this seat and I don't intend to let you have it," was the chauffeur's response.

"Do you know who I am?" demanded Dinan, with a fierce glare.

"No," was Compton's answer. "Do you know who I am?"

Dinan made no answer to this but prepared to enforce his order when a man named Compton called over to him. "Hello, Edly," he said.

Dinan glared once more and then walked away to another seat.

Dinan says this is simply a Burns story.

DR. AIKEN TO WED AGAIN

Wedding Had to Be Postponed One Day on Account of Divorce Decree.

So anxious was Dr. Be R. Aiken of 1215 Jefferson street, to marry that he could scarcely wait until the three hundred and sixty-fifth day had elapsed before his former wife, Ora E., could be granted a final decree against him. Dr. Aiken, who was formerly superintendent of the Masonic Home at Decoto, appeared before Judge Weeks yesterday afternoon to have a final decree of divorce signed.

An extraordinary decree was signed on Aug. 1, 1904, so the court decided that a final decree could not be entered until after Aug. 1 of this year. After being restored to a single state this morning by Judge Melvin, and having the final decree entered with the county clerk, Dr. Aiken obtained a marriage license to wed Annie Wellington from New York.

IS THRUST OUT OF ALABAMA

License to Do Business Is Taken Away From Southern Railway Company.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Aug. 2.—The license of the Southern Railway to do business in Alabama has been revoked by action of Secretary of State Julian for alleged violation of Senate bill No. 35, effective July 1. The action of the Secretary of State is not in resistance of restraining orders issued by the United States court of the fifth circuit, as this law is not among those combatted by the railroads and not included in any of the litigation now pending in the court of Federal Judge Jones of the Middle Alabama district.

The case upon which the revocation was made came from the Circuit Court of Haywards county in the shape of a notification from Clerk McNeil. The suit has been removed from the State Circuit Court to the Federal court. Secretary Julian investigated the law and decided there was nothing else to do, but marked the license cancelled as the action of the statute is automatic.

Act 35 provides that when any foreign corporation is sued in the State's court and removes such suit from the State to the Federal courts, the clerk of the court from which the removal was taken will at once certify such action to the secretary of state, "who shall thereupon immediately cancel said license and make and enter upon the stub thereof an order in substance."

TWO RECEIVE BOGUS CHECKS

Noted Construction Engineer Is Wanted by Police for Alleged Crime.

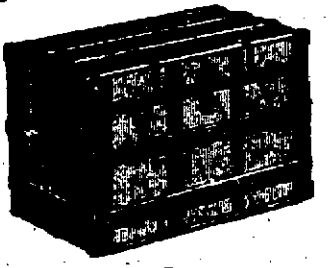

Detectives are searching in this city and San Francisco for a view of the whereabouts of R. B. Sheridan, an eastern construction expert, who is charged with having passed worthless checks on Henry Ahlers, a saloon keeper at McAllister and Fillmore streets, San Francisco, and also on the proprietor of an Oakland hotel. Ahlers swore out a warrant in San Francisco for Sheridan's arrest yesterday, but so far no trace of him has been found.

According to Ahlers, Sheridan gave him a check for $100 on a San Francisco bank, but it was returned marked "no funds." Ahlers has been hunting for Sheridan since, and yesterday, despairing of the task of finding him, called on the police for aid.

HOTEL DECEITFUL. Meantime a complaint from an Oakland hotel keeper that Sheridan had succeeded in passing off a worthless check for $125 on him, was lodged with the police who refuse to divulge the name of the Oakland victim. The local police claim not to know of the Sheridan case.

Sheridan is said to be well connected in New York. He came west as a construction expert and has been employed by the Cotton Brothers company, one of the largest firms of its kind in the United States. Sheridan is described as being more than six feet in height, about thirty-two years old and a Beau Brummel in appearance. Up to a few days ago he lived at an Oakland hotel, but he suddenly dropped from sight and nothing has been heard of him since.

MONEY IS SAID—WHAT'S THE DIFFERENCE ANYWAY?

So Says Treasurer Banfel This Morning Regarding the Threats of Removing Him From Office.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 2.—City Treasurer Banfel was early at his office in the Western National Bank this morning and showed signs of having spent a sleepless night. He looked extremely worried and was reluctant about being interviewed.

When asked as to whether he feared removal from office, he stated that he was not very familiar with the law, but realized that he must submit to whatever judgment might be passed upon him in case the matter were taken to court.

Mr. Banfel said: "One thing is sure—our conscience is clear and our cash is straight. I issue a report every month to Auditor Horton and the Treasurer's report is published every three months in the official paper of San Francisco. The fact that we withdrew two millions of dollars from the United States mint in July, 1906, must have been known to Auditor Horton."

HORTON AT FAULT. "If he hasn't looked at his books that is his fault, not ours. What is the difference where the money is so long as it is safe. This matter is mere quibbling over a technicality and there is little use making such a fuss about it. In extraordinary cases it is necessary to use emergency measures, and that is what we did in this connection. After the fire everything was in a turmoil, and it was necessary for a man to act on his own judgment. When I found it was necessary to have more funds I notified Auditor Horton that I intended withdrawing the two million dollars from the mint and he sent his deputy, Wentworth, to be present at the time the money was transferred.

"I court the fullest investigation as to my methods and as to my honesty."

IN CITY VAULT. Mr. Banfel wished to make it plain that the city's money is not kept in the Western National bank, but rather in a vault rented by the city, which is located in the Western National bank building.

It is evident that Auditor H. C. Horton has been converted from his original stand in which he recognized only Eugene B. Schnitz as mayor of the City and San Francisco. As soon as he heard that the $2,000,000 had been withdrawn from the mint he immediately sought out Mayor Taylor, thus recognizing him as the de facto mayor of this city. Thus it will be necessary to mandamus Banfel only in order to compel recognition of Mayor Taylor's signature to salary warrants.

SAYS BERKELEY CAN'T STAY DRY

Town Trustee Is Accused of Stating Licenses Will Be Granted Soon.

BERKELEY, Aug. 2.—The trial of Charles Hadlen, charged with having liquor in his possession with the purpose of selling the same, was resumed this morning in the police court. The attorneys on both sides agreed to try the case with nine jurors in order to save time, as the venire had been exhausted last night, when adjournment was taken. Chief Vollmer was the first witness and he told of the raid on the Hadlen place on the night of May 11, when the police forced an entrance into the place, found the bar damp and liquors in the place. The cash register had $4 in cash and several dollars and the bar equipment was first-class in every respect. There were many clear stubs on the floor and they were fresh, not more than twenty-four hours since used.

DRAWS DIAGRAM. With diagram, Chief Vollmer showed the position of the rooms and was asked regarding the living rooms that were used by Hadlen and family. These adjoint the store and barroom and the defense insisted that it would endeavor to prove that the liquors in the barroom were for Hadlen's personal use, and that they were those left over when the saloon was closed.

When Sergeant Woods was called he corroborated Chief Vollmer's testimony, and then made the statement that Hadlen told him the night of the raid, in answer to a question why he had such a large stock of liquors on hand, that "Truette Olsen told him (Hadlen) that he would have no trouble in procuring a license in a short time, by the first of the year at any rate, and for this reason he had purchased a big stock of liquors."

Woods further said he asked Hadlen why he did not sell the liquor to the wholesale houses and other dealers, and Hadlen replied that he would lose money in that way.

The case is still on trial.

CAT HUNT TO PROVE COSTLY

Man Who Seeks Tabby and Gets in Fight Found Guilty of Battery.

Mrs. James Carter went bitterly in Justice Geary's court this morning as Attorney Dunn requested that Mr. and Mrs. Carter of Laurel Grove be severely reprimanded for their conduct toward John Thompson, who last Sunday morning, while seeking his cat in Carter's yard, got into a fight with the Carters. Dunn's request was ignored by Justice Geary, who found Thompson guilty of battery.

Mr. Carter held her handkerchief up to her eyes during the entire trial and at times gave signs of great suffering from the bruises she had received at the hands of Thompson, who said that he struck the aged woman several times in self-defense.

Thompson, according to the testimony given by Mrs. Carter, had both Mr. and Mrs. Carter on the ground in Carter's yard administering severe blows upon them. Both Mr. and Mrs. Carter sustained lacerations about the face, which had to be treated by a physician.

CALLS HIM VILLAIN. W. B. Rinehart, attorney for the Carters, in open court this morning called Thompson a "common villain."

Thompson is a travesty upon justice to defend such a man," said Rinehart, speaking to Attorney Dunn. Thompson has acted like an animal who had killed his cat, whom he thought had killed his cat. This man ought to be given the full limit of the law which provides for battery and that is not enough for a man like Thompson, continued Rinehart. "I ask that Thompson be put under bond until he is sentenced."

Judge Geary rendered the verdict of guilty on the ground of battery and placed Thompson under a $500 bond.

John S. Williams Is Likely Elected

JACKSON, Miss., Aug. 2.—Returns this morning bear out the indications of last night that John S. Williams has been nominated for United States Senator by 10,400 to 10,000, although the supporters of Governor Vandam say that his majority will be less than 10,000 and may not go above 8000. It will take the official count to determine the majority.

Dies at 107; Never Tasted Medicine

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—Mrs. Catherine Gilligan, at the age of 107 years and four months, is dead at her home in the Bronx. She had lived in New York twenty-eight years, coming here from Ireland at the age of 79 to join her eight children. Mrs. Gilligan ascribed her longevity to her habit of eating onions at every meal and her refusal to worry about anything. She never tasted medicine.

BABE DIES UNATTENDED.
Deputy Coroner Barber, of Fruitvale, has charge of the remains of a six-months old child who died there today without a physician in attendance. An inquest will be held.

HALSEY JURY WILL NOT BE READY TILL MONDAY

All Kinds of Questions Are Being Asked the Men Who Are Serving on the Panel.

(SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE.)
SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 2.—The examination of talesmen for a jury in the Halsey case was continued this morning in Judge Dunne's court. The witnesses, including Thomas Lonergan, who is to play the star part in the first case against Halsey, were excused until Monday as the jury will not be completed before then.

Henry Gille, auditor in the freight department of the Southern Pacific, was the first talesman called. He had a fixed opinion and was excused.

RETIRED COAL DEALER.
George Jones, 340 Sycamore street, a retired coal dealer, was put upon the stand. District Attorney Langdon was quickly satisfied with him. Attorney McKee brought out the fact that the talesman had expressed himself as regretful that so much graft was necessary to get the indictment against Halsey. Jones would convince him that the defendant was probably guilty. It was impossible to displace him in this way. He was then attacked along the line of possible criticism of the jury should a verdict of not guilty be returned. He said he would have no fear of such criticism. He was passed.

Charles C. Bradford, 1407 Jackson street, a seaman's outfitter, was next called. He said he had expressed himself as regretful that so much graft was necessary to get the indictment against Halsey. Jones would convince him that the defendant was probably guilty. It was impossible to displace him in this way. He was then attacked along the line of possible criticism of the jury should a verdict of not guilty be returned. He said he would have no fear of such criticism. He was passed.

James L. Wright, a colored barber, living at 501 Railroad avenue, was examined. He had a fixed opinion and was excused.

ATTORNEYS WRANGLE.
Here occurred an outbreak between the attorneys. Attorney Johnson offered to consent to his being excused. Attorney Schlessinger refused. He began to examine the talesman, asking him if he were accused of a crime and indicted would he at once plead guilty. Attorney Johnson objected to this line of questioning. He said the defense had had its opportunity to examine the talesman and if there was any other purpose in the examination, it was an ulterior one.

Judge Dunne ruled the question out. Then followed a sharp wrangle between Johnson and Schlessinger. "I intend to examine this juror," said Schlessinger.

"All right," replied Johnson, "but observe the rules of the court."

"You're a wonderful mind reader, Mr. Johnson," said Schlessinger. "It doesn't take much ability to read your mind, Mr. Schlessinger."

"No; there isn't as much on my mind as there is on yours, Mr. Johnson."

"I admit it. We won't argue that," was Johnson's parting remark.

Judge Dunne interfered at this point. Bradford was excused.

Norman F. Hall, 700 Broderick street, a dealer in bookbinder's supplies, was excused as having an opinion. V. H. Paff, a civil engineer, shared the same fate.

WORKS FOR RAILROAD.

DYNAMITE HIT BY LIGHTNING

Explodes in Big Hardware Store, Snuffing Out the Lives of Four Persons.

CALVESTON, Aug. 2.—The operation and possibly four persons lost their lives when lightning struck the big hardware store of W. S. Hemingway, exploding a quantity of dynamite. The dead are Maynard Hemingway, aged thirty, who clerked for his brother, and Maynard Hemingway's wife and five year old daughter.

Hemingway was alone in the store when a terrific electrical storm arose. His wife became frightened at the vivid flashes, and taking her little daughter with her went over to stay with her husband. The storm was at its height when a bolt struck the building. There was a terrific report, immediately followed by another as the dynamite exploded.

The two-story frame building instantly became a mass of flames that raged so fiercely it was impossible to make any efforts to save the bodies of the victims.

TWO POLITICAL PLUMS NOW AWAIT PICKING

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 2.—Two State Bank Commissioners went out of office yesterday and it is now up to Governor Gillett to fill the vacancies. Judge Gillett, stock of Ventura and C. H. Dunsmuir are the retiring officials. The former resigned.

There is a political fight on for the positions. The office brings $4000 a year and is not one to be slighted by the politicians.

Friends of Dunsmuir are making every effort to have him reappointed. Colonel John A. Curry is an aspirant. It is not thought his chances are rosy. It will be remembered that Curry was appointed to the place he now desires by Pardee, but his name was withdrawn from the race by Governor Gillett.

W. W. Giddings of Stanislaus and G. W. Hartman of Tulare are striving hard for the positions on the commission. At the last election Tulare polled an anti-Gillett vote and so no wagers are being made on chairman.

Governor Gillett is in Eureka, and it is not known whether he will announce his selections from there or wait until he returns.

EMERGENCY SALE!

—AT THE—
EILERS STORES

When we leased our large new store in San Francisco on Market Street last spring, it was understood that we should have occupancy on September 1st. On account of delays in the furnishing of material and labor, we are now told that it will be several months longer before possession can be had.

In anticipation of occupying this store, which will be by far the largest and most complete music building in America, it was necessary for us to place orders for tremendous shipments of pianos that would be in keeping with the surroundings which this great Emporium of Music will furnish.

The impossibility of securing these quarters at this time makes it necessary for us to adopt some means to handle the tremendous stock already here and now on the way. There is but one feasible plan, and that is to make such reductions in price as will compel every prospective buyer to "sit up and take notice."

We fully realize that this is not the time of the year when people are most likely to buy pianos. We know also that to effect a large reduction in stock at this time it will be necessary to reduce prices below anything that Oakland or Berkeley has ever known.

Price reductions at the Eilers Stores are significant in several respects. In the first place, every one is familiar with the fact that the Eilers houses have created a revolution in the piano business upon the Pacific Coast by applying modern commercial methods to the piano business by selling pianos at what they are worth instead of asking "what the traffic will bear."

Secondly, there is no raise in price before the reduction is made.

Thirdly, unlike "reduction sales" recently advertised by other houses, every piano advertised is to be found on our floors at the prices quoted in the advertising.

Real Piano Opportunities.

$1000 styles (grands) .....	$600 to $750
$800 styles .....	$500
$600 styles .....	$412 to $487
$500 styles .....	$318 to $368
$400 styles .....	$268 to $292
$300 styles .....	$218 to $257

Other cheaper styles at prices ranging from $112 to $200. Easy terms of payment.

This startling sale of high-grade and dependable pianos is now on at our Oakland and Berkeley stores, and will continue only until our stock is reduced to normal proportions.

Remember, this emergency sale includes forty different makes of pianos, among which are the most worthy and popular productions of the piano makers' art.

WILL REDUCE WHARF RENTAL

Two Local Transportation Companies Are Recommended for Lighter Tolls.

The wharves and water front committee of the City Council last evening heard the petitions of the California Transportation company, the Arper Transportation company, and the Piper-Aden-Goodall company for reductions of wharf rent. The representatives of the three companies all declared that the present rent charged is exorbitant under existing conditions.

"My business has been so greatly reduced during the last few months, that I consider the rent charged for the wharf is out of all reason," declared Arper.

The rent of the Arper Transportation company was reduced last year from $100 to $150 per month. Arper asked that it be reduced to the former amount.

The committee recommended that the rent of the California Transportation company and the Arper Transportation company be reduced to $100 a month, commencing August 1, 1937, and that the petition of the Piper-Aden-Goodall company be laid over, pending a report from the city wharfinger.

PROPOSED REDUCTION OF CIRCUS LICENSE

The business manager of Ringling Brothers' circus appeared before the license committee of the City Council last evening and asked to have the circus license reduced to $100 a month. The license is at present $50 a day for troupes which show to less than 5000 spectators and $200 a day, for those which show to more than 5000.

Ringling Brothers' representative said that their show would remain here two days, and would spend a large amount of money in this city. They play to about 7500 people. He asked to have the present license reduced to correspond to that in San Francisco, where it is $100 a day. It was finally agreed that the license for shows of this size be fixed at $150 for the first day, and $50 for each succeeding day of the performance.

WAGES WARFARE AGAINST SALOON SIDE ENTRANCES

Councilman Everhardt Attacks One Place and Baccus Calls for Report on Entire Subject Matter.

The license committee of the City Council last night recommended that the Chief of Police be instructed to give the Council a report of all saloons in the city which have side entrance rooms or compartments where women are served with drinks.

This action was taken after a spirited discussion had arisen over the charges made by Councilman Everhardt against the saloon of J. M. Silva at the corner of Seventh and Webster streets.

During the discussion Councilman Baccus said that he knew of a number of saloons in the city which harbor women. Councilman Everhardt responded that he believed it to be the duty of every councilman, as an officer of the city, to bring violators of the side-door ordinance before the Council for forfeiture of license.

The Councilman Baccus moved that the Chief of Police be instructed to furnish a complete report of all violations of the ordinance. The motion was adopted unanimously.

Councilman Everhardt announced that it was his intention to personally report every saloon which came under his notice where women were served in side rooms. It was finally decided to file the charges against Silva.

ALL MUST APPEAR.

A motion was passed requiring all future applicants for a renewal of old saloon licenses to be present personally at the Council meeting when the application is brought up.

LAMONTAGUE CITED.

The charges preferred against the saloon of J. D. Lamontague, 203 San Pablo avenue, were ordered to be filed. Lamontague testified that he had no rooms or booths in connection with his saloon and was willing to have it investigated.

The license committee recommended that licenses be granted to Jack Ross, 1466 1/2 Seventh street; T. Cordano, 711 Myrtle street; John Vallado, 1581 1/2 10th street; John Dooley, 1747 Seventh street; Eugene P. Lavour, 653 Washington street; Con Donovan, 5399 Telegraph avenue and Wehner & Platt, corner of Fifty-ninth street and College avenue.

The application of James Higgins, corner of Fifth and Webster streets, was laid over for two weeks. That of Joseph Marty, 301 Clay street, was postponed until next meeting.

A petition was received from J. Marshall, 673 Thirty-seventh street, asking that the license be renewed.

SMALL VICTIM OF MUTILATION FIENDS
OKLAHOMA CITY, Aug. 2.—George Genseth, found murdered and mutilated west of this city last night, was a victim of a gang of white men, a week ago last Saturday to join his mother and stepfather at Seminole, T. In order to make the trip he joined a construction gang. It is now believed he was murdered by the same parties who killed the man found dead in a freight car at Chickasha a few days ago and who had been similarly mutilated.

NATIVE DAUGHTERS' WHIST TOURNAMENT
BERKELEY, Aug. 2.—Bear Flag Parlor No. 151, N. D. G. W., will entertain at a whist tournament tonight at South Hall. Several prizes will be offered. Hand-painted china from the brush of Miss Eva Berwick will be among the prizes offered. A black satin hand-painted sofa cushion will be raffled at the conclusion of the whist tournament. The committee in charge are Mrs. Emma Carter (chairman), Mrs. Louise Straub and Mrs. Kate Hartley.

TO WAGE WAR ON HARRIMAN
Bear Campaign on Gigantic Scale Between Millionaires in Wall Street.

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—A bear campaign, which is said to be under the leadership of Daniel C. Reid, of Chicago, has been begun in Wall Street against E. H. Harriman and the roads he controls. Those who are informed say that this is the beginning of a railroad stock war such as the street has never known, and that it is to be waged until Harriman is worsted, or he once more rises above his enemies. Reid is connected with the Santa Fe road and associated with him is Edwin Hawley, representing all of the varied interests of the Gould family. It is to be a battle of millions and to be waged to a bitter finish. Just the position that Harriman has taken has not been settled.

LAMAR BEHIND GUN.
It is expected from the utterances of this man, whom Harriman overthrew, that when the time comes he will be found in the ranks of the anti-Harriman people. The real man at the helm of the movement, however, is David Lamar. The effect of the influence has already been shown in the fact that the market has shown that the promised advances in Southern Pacific and Union Pacific on the strength of the dividends, did not materialize. In fact, the prices dropped.

Stuyvesant Fish has come out in a statement to the effect that he will not be a candidate for the presidency of the Illinois Central again, but that he will devote his time hereafter, and at the annual meeting of the board, to telling the stockholders what he knows of the Harriman management of the road and other things. This is considered a tentative declaration of war.

OIL ON BOTH SIDES.
Another significant feature is the sudden hurrying home of H. C. Fitch, who, next to Harriman, is considered the largest factor in the Harriman camp. Another man to be reckoned with is Thomas Lawson, who is believed to have patched up his differences with the Standard Oil Company, and who is standing ready to wage war for the Harriman forces. It complicates the situation for the Standard Oil Company, as the Rockefeller are interested in the Gould interests as well as in the Union Pacific. This division makes the Standard Oil men fight both ways.

LARGE AUDIENCE SEES MISS BARRYMORE PLAY
Ethel Barrymore of whom the stage-world ever speaks with praise and affection, last night played Clyde Fitch's quaint comedy of New York life in the seventies, entitled "Captain Jinks." The Madison Theater was crowded to the doors.

The comedienne has more than a passing preference for the play of "Captain Jinks," for it is tenderly identified with her earlier stage success, being the place in which she first starred, and that so unexpectedly to both Mr. Frohman and Mr. Fitch, since neither manager nor author believed that the play possessed requisite stardom material for the young actress, and, therefore, gave its initial production a general cast of sufficient capability to determine its special qualities, and Miss Barrymore was included haphazard in this gathering of players. Before the fall of the final curtain on this first public performance of the comedy, Ethel Barrymore was acclaimed a star of the first magnitude and the play one of the most original of Clyde Fitch's works. "Captain Jinks" has never been omitted from Miss Barrymore's repertoire and has had a revival almost every season in the principal cities in turn.

Miss Barrymore enacts her role of Madame Thentoni in "Captain Jinks" even more charmingly with each repetition, and the play itself seems more brilliant than at its premier production. The actress has had a remarkable success with this quaint Fitch comedy, fully renewing the triumph of her first starring season with it and making Madame Thentoni ever a welcome stage character in the rollicking wonderment. Her large company still includes Mr. Bruce McRae as her leading man, and he has been such for several seasons. The membership likewise includes Eugene Jepson, Etta Germon, Echlin Gayer, Lucile Watson, George Pauncefoot, James Kearny, Anita Rothe, Fanny Burt and others.

Miss Barrymore plays again tonight, tomorrow's matinee and Saturday evening.

NO DELAY IN SENDING FLEET

Metcalf Not Criticized, Says Secretary Loeb for Roosevelt.

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., Aug. 2.—Secretary Loeb said yesterday that there had been no change in the plans to send the Atlantic battleship fleet to the Pacific ocean and that the necessary preparations for the trip are now being made by the Navy Department. Upon their completion and approval by the President, the voyage will be begun when the President gives the word.

Loeb made this statement incidentally by saying that there was no foundation for the report that Secretary Metcalf had been or would be asked to resign from the fleet because of his announcement that the fleet would be in San Francisco harbor in the near future. Loeb said there was no reason for criticism of Secretary Metcalf on account of his announcement. Secretary Loeb's statement that the fleet will go to the Pacific is regarded here as significant as being the first direct announcement to that effect made at Oyster Bay.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—No protest has been received from the Japanese government against the plan to send the Atlantic battleship fleet to the Pacific, and none is expected. It is pointed out that no basis exists for complaint, as the fleet is to remain in American waters.

CADETS WILL GIVE MIDSUMMER DANCE

Invitations are now out announcing a mid-summer dance to be held by Company N, First Regiment, League of the Cross Cadets, at Central Hall on Tuesday evening, August 20.

It has been the custom of this company in the past to hold but one dance each year, and that the annual military ball. Owing to the success of these annual affairs, and to the request by patrons of similar events more often, it was decided to arrange for a dance this month. A new armory is now being fitted up for this company and in order to raise funds to complete and furnish it the proceeds of the dance will be devoted to that cause.

The dance is taking the place of the annual military ball, which is always a great drawing card and which would be held about this time.

Company N is one of the finest bodies of young men in Oakland, and every social affair undertaken by them is always well attended by their many friends and therefore always a success.

The committee of arrangements consists of the following members who are making elaborate preparations for that date: Sergeant H. J. Courtney, chairman; Sergeant H. J. Fazzolari, musician; J. P. Callaghan, Private J. P. Flannery, J. F. Kearney, G. P. Brady, G. Ahern and F. X. Smith.

High Authority Declares That No Change of Mind Has As Yet Occurred.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—"President Roosevelt will not permit the Republican National Convention to nominate him for another term."

This statement comes from a source that can be absolutely relied upon—one so deep in the confidence of the president and in knowledge of his purposes that if his name were made known his statement would be universally accepted as final without question.

The action of the Republican State Committee in Ohio on Tuesday led to the declaration quoted. The authority for the statement went on to say, in corroboration of his own knowledge and opinion, that President Roosevelt would not have permitted the Ohio Republicans formally to commit themselves to Secretary Taft if he were not unalterably determined not to be a candidate himself.

ST. GAUDENS, FAMOUS SCULPTOR, VERY ILL

CORNISH, N. H., Aug. 2.—August St. Gaudens, the sculptor, is seriously ill at his home in this village and grave fears are entertained that he will not recover. On Wednesday Mr. St. Gaudens' condition was such that it was feared he would not live through the night. He rallied, however, and yesterday was carried to his studio, where he criticized and directed the work of his assistants.

Mr. St. Gaudens has been in failing health for more than a year and for the past month his decline has been very rapid. He has been almost helpless and unable to work. He has been at his studio nearly every day, being carried there by his attendants. He could do little work himself, but has directed the work of his corps of assistants.

EVERYTHING QUIET AT HIBBING STRIKE CENTER

DULUTH, Minn., Aug. 2.—All was quiet in the Hibbing and Eveleth districts this morning, and larger forces were at work at all the mines. The strike leader, E. J. Feltz, president of the local branch of the Western Federation of Miners, went to Nashua, N. H., to call a meeting of the strikers there. He says if there is any interference from the Sheriff he is prepared to call armed men from all parts of the range to resist.

Chief Magistrate, at Chisholm, last evening investigated the stories that the strikers were armed. He found a number of men waiting at their homes wearing cartridge belts and armed with rifles.

COMMUTERS WIN ANOTHER GAME FROM SAN FRANCISCO

Van Haltren's Men Hit the Ball at Oppor-tune Times and Come Out on Top in Slow Game.

With Wright and Quick appearing each other on the slab the Oakland Commuters added another victory to their string by defeating the San Francisco Seals at Recreation Park, in San Francisco, yesterday afternoon, by a score of 3 to 2.

Wright was in great shape and the Town Pump Terror slipped the Town Pump curve on the Seals with disastrous results to that team.

Quick was also in great form, but the Commuters managed to land on the ball when it did the most good, hence their victory.

Our old friend, Reliable Truck Egan, had a bad day at shortstop and allowed three to slip through his fingers.

Truck was at the big fight Wednesday night, and the excitement of the engagement of gladiators was not yet subsided in his brain.

Egan went after the ball like Britt trying to block Nelson, but Truck did not have the defensive point down to such a fine science as did the great Little Native Son, and as a result his footed badly. We stole that word "footed" from Charlie Brennan, but as it sounds good to us in this narrative we took the liberty of using it. We hope Charlie hasn't got it copy-righted.

By defeating the Seals again yesterday the Commuters annexed their fourth straight victory from that benighted team.

From present indications it looks as though the Commuters and not the Seals will be the ones that will be darlings will have to fight for the pennant in this Coast League of ours.

The Oakland outfit only got three hits off Quick, but they managed to get them in where they did the most good.

Truck managed to retrieve himself for his erratic conduct by gathering in two of the three hits credited to our side of the ledger.

Danny Long's minions made frantic efforts to overhaul the Commuters, but they failed of their fell purpose, not to be eaten alive by the Seals, but to do the eating act if necessary, which they did with a great amount of healthful science.

Both sides played ball that was very mechanical until the fifth, when the Seals started with two Egan hit past short and was safe at second on a slider's choice by Dashwood. The Seals' infield handling the ball very slowly.

Biggs put one down to Quick, who begged many feet over Williams' head. Egan registered and both the other runners moved up a notch. Halsey died easy, but Devereaux made it full house when he got a base and as soon as Wright tied to center Dashwood spotted in before Spencer could negotiate the return throw to the plate. Oakland put the other one through in round six without the assistance of a friendly benefit. Van Haltren waited for the bad ones and Heimuller bunted him along. At this juncture Quick Spencer home in jig time. Both men were eagerly waiting for Charlie Irwin to come through with some sort of a single, but all he had was a fly, which Heimuller hooked and the fun was over for the day. The score:

Portland Wins From Angels

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 2.—The Beavers got off ahead yesterday and the lucky tally in the first inning was sufficient to win. It was a splendid exhibition of the national game, pitching superb and fielding glib. The opening was a heart-breaking pace with honors even. Lovett made the only tally. He was out on a field tap, but Mott's best was a pop fly, but Smith came tearing in expecting a punt and the ball went over his head, rolling into the field. Smith went after the ball, leaving third uncovered and Lovett, seeing the opening, made a run for it, beating Deimas in the race for the bag. Casey hit to Gray and gave Mott an opening but was himself put out at first. Deasy smashed a hot one along the first base line, and Dillon made a grand stop, but was unable to prevent Lovett from scoring. McCredie's effort resulted in a long fly to Carlisle. A peculiar coincidence was that Los Angeles got two men on bases in the first inning in much the same way as did Portland. Bernard and Carlisle both beat their infield tags. Brashers failed in attempting a sacrifice and when Dillon sent a fly to Lovett, Carlisle was doubled before he could get back to first.

Pokorny made his first appearance on the home ground today. He substituted for Altherton at first base, and fielded the position in splendid style. Score:

B. R. Day After Fleet Sprinters

VICTORIA, B. C., Aug. 2.—"Provided that I can find a good track in the United States, I am going after every record from the 100 to the 1000 yard mark," says B. R. Day, who arrived here on a steamer from Australia. Day is the professional champion short distance runner of Australia and Great Britain.

As soon as Day reaches Seattle it is his intention to put up a forfeit of $1000 against any runner in America at any distance from 100 yards to 1000 yards. He says he has done this either Longboat or Scrubb at a mile, if he is allowed three months time in which to train.

"Perhaps" People Answer the Alert

Sporting Editor TRIBUNE: Dear Sir—In Tuesday night's issue of your paper you published a card signed, "The Crew of the Alert," in which they state that the Alert was to windward of the Perhaps when the steering gear got out of order. I wish to state that this is not a fact. The Perhaps was at least a quarter of a mile to windward, and had sailed at least four miles more than the Alert in getting to this position. It is a fact that the Alert did reach the Perhaps in three days, while it took the Perhaps five to do the same thing. As to the Alert being beaten there was no question, as the Perhaps could have rounded the Shoal Buoy ten minutes behind her and then catch her and beat her before she could get to the Perhaps. I spoke to the captain of the Perhaps last night about the article in your paper, and he said that it was a case of sour grapes on the part of the Alert's crew, as he and Captain Kay had been racing too often with each other without either one going into the news-tube to settle their opinions, and that he was ready and willing to meet the Alert at any time and sail for a dinner or anything else allowed by the California Yacht Club rules. Hoping this justice to the sport you will publish this letter, I have signed it with my name, yours faithfully, "ONE OF THE CREW OF THE PERHAPS."

Lawyer Wants Fee From Bat Nelson

Battling Nelson's share of the gate receipts from the Britt-Nelson fight yesterday garnished by Charles Perry, an attorney who claims that Nelson still owes him money for legal services rendered more than a year ago in defense of a woman who was charged with robbery.

A year ago Celia Fay was arrested and held under the charge of having robbed a man. Nelson is said to have gone on the woman's bond to the extent of $1000. Later the case came up in the Superior court, but the prosecution failed to come and the woman was discharged.

And $1000, which he had put up as a surety, was then returned to him. Perry acted as attorney for the woman, but he claims that he has never been paid for his services.

He expects to recover his loss from the proceeds of the Britt-Nelson fight.

GOOD NEWS FOR THE BOXING FAN

A Sportman's Niche

By T. P. MAGILLIGAN.

SAYS the San Francisco fan to the Oakland fan: "There is a pleasure in pessimism, which satiated optimism can never attain." There we guess that will send you to the dictionary.

POOR old England always getting walloped by her ungrateful colonies. JOHNNY MCGRAW is to open a brokerage office in New York. We allways had serious misgivings as to the future of that brilliant young man, but I didn't think it would ever come to that.

WINNIE O'CONNOR married an English girl in Germany last week. We wonder how little Winnie was able to stand still long enough to sign the contract.

IF SONOMA GIRL is worth $30,000 now, what would she be worth if C. K. G. Billings was still in the game.

ADVERSITY, like prosperity, hath her blessings. The recent downfall of Nelson will rid pugilism of one Billy Nolan.

FROM now on we will not hear so much about that weight question. That matter was decisively settled at Auditorium Rink last Wednesday night.

JOE GANS will not have to sleep on a pair of butter scales in the future. And we might also add that the weighing in question has been settled.

WE WONDER if Billy Nolan is still on a silent hunt for a copy of those old London Prize Ring rules?

ANYHOW, Battling Nelson has escaped the stigma of being in the quince class with Mr. William Squires of Melbourne.

AS SCOT PARK is still breathing hard, and from present indications it will require a supreme court decision to euthyretize chloroform that plant.

NELSON'S cup of sorrow is at last filled to overflowing. On top of the beating that Britt handed to him a legal gentleman attached his share of the gate receipts.

LAST Wednesday's little scrap adds to oblivion's register the name of William Nolan, and we have learned of no lament being made in sporting circles over this timely fall of the man who tried to stop boxing.

FOUR in a row from the Seals is not a very bad record for a team, which certain San Francisco parties are pleased to refer to as the "Suburbanites."

Ascol's Fate Now With Upper Court

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 2.—On the stand that the Supreme court will take hinges the future of racing at Ascot Park track near Los Angeles.

Action brought to test the validity of the annexation of a long strip of land, including the Ascot race track, is now pending in the Supreme court of the State. It is expected that the matter will be passed upon by October.

Paddock Gossip

By LEE DEMIER.

The horsemen at the Meadows, who run with their horses hot one day and cold another should be severely dealt with.

Bud Doble, the once famous trotting horse driver took in the trot meeting at Pleasanton yesterday.

For his circus ride on Miss May Bowditch, Jocko Galindo was given ten days on the ground.

By running the seven and one-half furlongs in 1:32 Cadichon equaled the world record for a circuit track at the Meadows yesterday.

M. J. Hayes, owner of Derby winner, Johnny Lyons, suspended for 30 days. Entries for his horses to be refused for that period.

Salable was run up from $400 to $700. The horse did not change stalls.

Millard Sanders, the trainer, beat Dillon of late years as the driver of Lou Athashash, b. h. (De Ryder), and when that idol was shattered by Britt in San Francisco the city went into the doldrums or megrims or whatever follows crushing defeat.

The citizens of the village beat heavily on Nelson's chances, and as a result lost on that star performer.

NINIE RUSSELL BREAKS DOWN

Year West Too Much for Actress, Who Will Leave Stage for a Year.

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—With deep regret the theatrical world will learn that Ninie Russell will not resume acting for another year at least.

Ninie Russell has not enjoyed good health for several years, and in her contract with West End and Kimp, her manager, a clause was inserted providing that if she continued her tour until she would not be called upon to begin the following season until December.

Her tour in A Midsummer Night's Dream was a particularly arduous one, taking her as far South as Texas and as far West as San Francisco, and she returned to New York thoroughly fatigued.

She left immediately with her husband, Oswald York, for her summer home in Maine, where she has been under the treatment of her physician. Several letters received from her state that the advice of her physician she will go into retirement for a year, with the expectation that at the end of that time she will be sufficiently strong to resume her starring tour.

GOEBEL MURDER IS STILL THEIR THEME

GEORGETOWN, Ky., Aug. 2.—Much excitement was caused here today following a statement of State Attorney Franklin that he would offer W. S. Taylor immunity if he would come back to Kentucky to testify for Caleb Powers, accused of murdering Governor Goebel, and explain the part that was in Powers' possession when arrested.

A KEEN SENSE OF HUMOR.

"Did you hear about the joke Simpson played on his wife?"

"No. What was that?"

"After she had returned from the meeting of her club she tried to tell her some new scandal."

IS TOO BIG TO STAY AT HOME

Justice Trembles as "Stubborn Child" of 220 Pounds Appears in Court.

WORCESTER, Mass., Aug. 2.—Worcester has the champion heavyweight "stubborn child." Judge Utley in Central district court rubbed his eyes and leaned over his desk when Mary M. Davis was called and waddled to the stand.

"Mary M. Davis, you are charged with being a stubborn child," declared the clerk and the court went back with a jump while his jaws fell apart and he was speechless.

Mary weighs 220 pounds and she looks every ounce of it. She said she is nineteen years old and the mother of an eighteen-month-old infant. Her father was complainant and asserted that his little girl refused to stay at home. He alleged that she is a difficult child to handle and he urged the necessity of the court taking a hand. He is unable to spank her.

Mary told the court it wasn't her fault that she was not at home, as her mother had told her to leave; there wasn't room enough in the house for her. So Mary said she went to stay with her aunt, who has a bigger flat and had been there ever since. The court took another look at Mary, and decided that the larger the flat was the thing for her. She left the court room a free child.

PORTABLE ARMY AIRSHIP

Count Henri de la Vaux is building a large airship for military purposes. Its capacity will be 2000 cubic metres. The main object is portability. The airship can be taken to pieces and packed in four cases to follow the headquarters of an army corps, thus differing from the Laubach airships, which operate from a fortified base. It is estimated that De la Vaux's airship will have a speed of twenty-five miles an hour without wind. The object of the airship is to enable the army to move rapidly and to permit the airship to dominate smaller craft.

ENGINE PROVES COAL SAVER

Experts Declare Invention of Spaniard Will Change Use of Steam.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—Pedro Puljan, an engineer of Barcelona, Spain, has invented and submitted to practical tests a relative steam engine, which, it is asserted, will cause a revolution in all countries where steam power is used, according to a report received from Consul Ridgely, at Barcelona.

This engine may be applied to all purposes for which steam power is required, whether on land or on sea, it is claimed, and consumes but one-fifth the coal per horse-power that ordinary engines consume. It is stated that a ship burning 500 tons of coal a day with the ordinary marine engine would burn only 100 tons with the new invention. Besides, it occupies only one-fifth the space occupied by an ordinary marine engine.

The ordinary 100 horse-power engine weighs 15 tons; this one but three tons. Being much smaller the cost of manufacturing it is much less.

SAYS BANK JANITOR TOOK ROLL OF BILLS

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 2.—Because $3500 mysteriously disappeared from the First National Bank of Turtle Creek, Thomas Jordan, the negro janitor, is in jail in default of $3500 bail, on a charge of larceny. He protests his innocence.

At a hearing before Justice Bryans, Cashier Thomas W. Carroll testified that when he left the bank Wednesday evening, he failed to put away $3500 in currency. It was left on the counter inside the janitor's window. When the cashier returned yesterday morning the money was gone. It was decided that as Jordan had a key to the bank at night he should be arrested. Dr. A. L. Trevas, vice-president of the bank, made the information.

Over the telephone Cashier Carroll denied that any money of the institution was missing, and was unable to account for the fact that Jordan was in the county jail charged with having stolen $3500. He said that he had had a conversation with Jordan, but had experienced some difficulty with him, but said it was only a matter of disreputable conduct and had nothing to do with the loss of money.

CABBAGE TO JOIN UNION

Onions and Eggs Must Have on Label or Be Classed as "Unfair."

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—Garden truck bearing union labels is the latest thing proposed in Newburg, N. Y. Farmers in that vicinity have organized and asked for affiliation with the central labor union.

The only rock in the path of the brand new idea is whether the union label can be affixed to vegetables. If farmers can overcome this difficulty they will be welcomed by the labor unions, and walking delegates will include kitchen inspection among their duties.

The farmers recently met at Bearville and formed the Orange county union. Their idea is to cut out the middleman's profits and sell directly to consumers. For some years exactions by commission merchants have grown and profits to tillers of the soil have been cut. The plan is to form a company composed exclusively of members of the union to operate a large exchange in Newburg and deal directly with the people, selling union potatoes, tomatoes, cabbage and garden truck of all kinds directly below present non-union prices.

UNION SURPRISED.

To secure co-operation of the labor interests the farmers have asked to join the central labor union. This proposition took the labor leaders by surprise, and they appointed Jacob Calhoun and Anthony Dolan a committee to look into the matter. The committee will meet with the farmers' union at Walden. Dr. Dyer is at the head of the agricultural movement.

Union men in Newburg are enthusiastic over the project and say they will need no compulsion to purchase union vegetables if the prices are lower. It is so, however, that the question of the union label on goods is perplexing, and unless solved may keep the farmers outside the broadwork of organized labor.

It is maintained by some persons that every vegetable must be stamped. Thereupon critics ask how it will be possible to label ripe tomatoes, watermelons, box-wood, etc., and others say it will not do merely to label pea pods, but that each separate product must receive a certificate of character. This would also create work for the unemployed. Then there has arisen the problem of how succotash can be labeled.

When it comes to eggs, some of the labor men say it may be necessary to include hens in the union. If this be done the question of keeping them from working overtime and the matter of limiting their output will have to be solved.

PITCHER WEDS ROOTER.

Charles A. Rhodes, otherwise "Dusty Rhodes," star twirler of the Trenton Tri-State League baseball team, literally pitched himself into matrimony. Miss Susan Toner of Caney, Kans., recently became his bride in Trenton, N. J. Rhodes last summer was pitching for the Parsons, Kans., team, and the girl who is now his bride from that time on became the chief rooter for him. One day he braced up his nerve and blurted out:

"How'd you like to catch for me?" he blurted out.

"What do you mean?" she asked.

"Well," he stammered, "I mean same with a pitcher as umpire."

His sudden play won. Rev. A. J. Wesley of the Third Presbyterian Church of Trenton signed them in as a team, and they started on the game of life—New York American.
